Subject: Interview of Katherine Camerano (D.O.B. (c), (f) [REDACTED]) at 1 Meadows Avenue, Canton, Ma 02021 relative to the investigation into the homicide of her friend, John O'Keefe.

Case: 2022-112-33

1. On Sunday, January 30, 2022, at approximately 1:00pm, I, Trooper David DiCicco #3782, was present at 1 Meadows Avenue in the Town of Canton. The residence is home to homicide victim, John O'Keefe, as well as his niece, (c) [REDACTED] and his nephew, (c) [REDACTED] (D.O.B. (c) [REDACTED]). I had an appointment to meet with Paul O'Keefe, John's brother, and ask some questions about the relationship between John and Karen Read. Investigators were also looking for someone in John's family to possibly provide the passcode to his phone.

2. Upon completion of my brief meeting and conversation with Paul, he told me that Michael Camerano was downstairs, inside the house, and he was with John the night he died. He offered to get him so I could talk to him and I agreed. After interviewing Michael, he told me that his wife Katherine was downstairs and brought her up so I could talk to her about the phone call Karen made to her on Saturday morning. The following information was obtained from Katherine Camerano.

3. Katherine said she was working at 4:56am on Saturday, January 29, 2022, when Karen Read called her. Karen was screaming and said, "I can't find John". Karen asked where Katherine's husband, Michael, was. Katherine told her that he was at home. Karen repeated that she can't find John and kept screaming. Katherine could hear (c) in the background. Katherine then text her husband, Michael. Karen hung up the phone with Katherine. Katherine then text (c) and told her that "he's gonna be ok."

4. Despite Katherine trying to reassure (c) via text, she said it was not normal for John to stay out. She said John would never not come home and leave the kids alone. I asked for information on the relationship between Karen and John but Katherine said she has only been out with both of them socially once or twice. Katherine said she works Friday and Saturday nights so she doesn't observe a lot, but they seemed fine.

5. I asked to look at her cell phone communications with Karen after she called Katherine on Saturday morning and observed multiple SMS text messages, including, but not limited to:

- 5:53am – Karen texted – I am driving around w Kerry and Jen,
- 6:34am – Katherine texted – Any luck,
- 6:34am – Karen texted – He's dead,
- 6:34am – Katherine texted – What Karen are you serious, Karen do you have any idea where he is or did you find him
- 6:36am – Karen texted – He was in the snow.

6. I took two screenshots of the text communications I observed on Katherine's cell phone.

Respectfully submitted,
